 24 agreeable to the applicant in satisfaction of the entire

1 claim by tendering a valid and appropriate deed to the 2 United States.

3 (b) CERTIFICATE OF ALLOTMENT.—If the United
4 States determines that the allotment application is valid 5 or would have been approved under section 905 of the 6 Alaska National Interests Lands Conservation Act (42

18 of heirs or the approval of a will.

19 (d) NO LIABILITY.—The United States shall not be 20 subject to liability under Federal or State law for the pres-

 18 Corporation formed to receive benefits under 19 this Act; or

20 “(ii) otherwise conflicts with an interest in 21 land granted to a Native Corporation by the 22 United States;

23 “(B) the revised land description describes land 24 selected by or conveyed by interim conveyance or 25 patent to a Native Corporation of approximately

1 equal acreage in substitution for the land described 2 in the original application;

3 “(C) the Director of the Bureau of Land Man-

5 the final entitlement of the Native Corporation or its 6 successor in interest; and

17 Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act
18 (43 U.S.C. 1634) had the land in the allotment ap-
19 plication been in Federal ownership on December 2, 20 1980;

21 “(B) in consultation with the administering
22 agency, that the proposed revision would not create 23 an isolated inholding within a conservation system
24 unit (as defined in section 102 of the Alaska Na-

1 tional Interest Lands Conservation Act (16 U.S.C.
2 3102)); and

3 “(C) that the proposed revision will facilitate 4 completion of a land transfer in the State.

5 “(3)(A) On obtaining title evidence acceptable under 6 Department of Justice title standards and acceptance of 7 a reconveyance or relinquishment from a Native Corpora-
8 tion under paragraph (1), the Secretary shall issue a Na-
9 tive allotment certificate to the applicant for the land re-
10 conveyed or relinquished by the Native Corporation.

11 “(B) Any allotment revised under this section shall,

22 document as a result of actions taken under section 18(d)
23 of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (as added by 24 section 301) or section 18(e) of the Alaska Native Claims
25 Settlement Act (as added by section 303), or for other

 8 result of implementation under section 18(d) of the Alaska
 9 Native Claims Settlement Act (as added by section 301)
 10 or any voluntary reconveyance to facilitate a land transfer,
 11 a Village Corporation has insufficient remaining selections
 12 from which to receive its full entitlement under the Alaska
 13 Native Claims Settlement Act, the Secretary may use the 14 authority and procedures available under paragraph (3)
 15 of section 22(j) of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement
 16 Act (43 U.S.C. 1621(j)) (as added by section 208) to

 4 the United States—

5 “(A) may seek voluntary reconveyance of any 6 land described in the application that is reinstated
 7 or reconstructed after the date of enactment of this 8 subsection; but

9 “(B) shall not file an action in any court to re-
 10 cover title from a current landowner.

11 “(2) A certificate of allotment that is issued for any 12 allotment application for which a request for reinstate-
